

What Is Included In All-In-One Office Insurance?

- Office insurance is crucial for every business, regardless of its size
- It safeguards your business against unexpected events that can disrupt operations and lead to significant financial losses
- Key incidents covered by office insurance include property damage, theft, structural damage, equipment breakdown and bodily injury
- All-in-one office insurance provides comprehensive coverage tailored to the specific risks of your business operations

Office insurance includes essential coverage options such as:

Commercial Property Insurance

- Protects office property, equipment, furniture, and fixtures against damage or loss due to events like theft, fire, or flood
- Covers the loss of documents, data, and records

Business Interruption Insurance

- Covers the loss of income and extra expenses incurred during a temporary shutdown due to unexpected events like fire, natural disaster, or vandalism
- Helps in resuming business operations smoothly

Public Liability Insurance

- Protects your business from claims made by third parties (customers, suppliers) for personal injury or property damage that occurred on your premises or during work carried out for your company

Employers' Liability Insurance

- Vital coverage if you have employees
- Covers claims made by employees for work-related injury or illness
- Offers financial protection from potential legal fees and substantial payouts

Get comprehensive office insurance coverage from ERM Financial Services

Choosing the right office insurance is crucial to match your business's unique needs. At ERM Financial Services, we specialise in all-in-one office insurance packages designed to protect businesses of any size.

Our experienced team of insurance brokers assesses your risks and recommends suitable coverage for your business. Personalised service and long-term client relationships are our priorities, so contact us today at sales@ermfinancialservices.ie or call 01 845 4361 to find out more.